Please

note that we can only advise in English on the law as it applies in England and Wales and that legal advice is available by telephone or textphone only. We can speak to individual women seeking legal advice as well as individuals and organisations who are supporting women with these issues.

Rights of Women also publishes a number of information sheets and handbooks that may be useful, including our handbook From Report to Court: A handbook for adult survivors of sexual violence (free to survivors of sexual violence). Visit our website or contact us for further information. Rights of Women also runs a national training programme for professionals on these areas of law, contact us or visit our website to find out more about these and other Rights of Women events.
