Child Contact Handbook

Second edition

by Alison Burt and Julia Thackray

RIGHTS OF WOMEN

The essential guide for women on the law and child contact

This extensive, detailed and accessible handbook guides women through the law and procedure in relation to child contact and includes:

- What types of contact the court can order
- How the court makes decisions
- Preparing and making an application
- Domestic violence and child contact
- The role of the Children And Families Court Advisory and Support Service (CAFCASS)

This revised edition of Rights of Women's Child Contact Handbook has been substantially updated to include all relevant changes to the law introduced by the Adoption and Children Act 2002, Children and Adoption Act 2006 and recent changes to CAFCASS.

It is essential reading for all women dealing with child contact issues and for professionals who offer advice and support to women on relationship breakdown.

Rights of Women works to attain justice and equality by informing, educating and empowering women on their legal rights
